

Serving Our Community

The AgroCouncil is a grassroots organization that goes beyond just uniting people with their food sources but promotes partnerships between farmers and purveyors to educate people to “produce and preserve” their food sources. Members can participate in farm exchanges, home gardening training, culinary education and participation in our food bank.